EVERYBODYS. WALZ AND PURITYS ARE THE COMMERCIAL WINI

Gillett, Villareal and Brennan Twirl Their Clubs to a Victory; Feldmans Revert to the Old Style; Soldier Pitchers Prove Easy Pickings For Fast Traveling Mexican Team.

WALZ and Everybodys continue their winning streak in the Commercial league and each still has its perfect percentage with three wins and no defeats. The Everybodys defeated the Krackajacks in the Sunday morning game at Rio Grande park, the contest proving the best of the day. The defeat deprived the Krackajacks of their perfect percentage. "Buster" Gillett showed real class on the mound for the clerks and Lucas also did well.

"Red" Breman, the sorrel-topped southpaw of the Puritys, came back in his 1915 form and pitched shutout ball against the Feldmans. The photographers again had their old trouble of the regular players not showing up, and while Jim Wilson pitched good ball, a pitcher cannot be asked to win with a scratch team against such clubs as the Commercial league now boasts. Manager Rix had a fine team a week ago and had be fielded the same bunch, with Roberts in right field and a new man at first, Sunday, there might have been a chance.

The Walz team rounged away from the Seventh infantry in the other half if the afternoon hill. It was just a workout for Villareal, while the Walz batters certainly fattened their averages at the expense of the soldier pitchers, The afternoon attendance was unusually large and it is evident that the tans appreciate the quality of baseball now being put up by the Commercial

EVERYBODYS WIN FROM KRACKAJACKS

BY "BECK."

Everybodys kept up their winning treak by winning the morning game tom the Krackalacks by a score of 4 b 1. The game was interesting and ras watched by a hundred or so early ising fains, but it was noticeable that he haster morning fashion parade owntown proved too big a counter struction for the fair fans and the woming were noticeable by their absence. The game was not up to the standard set the previous Sanday morning by the Wals and Feldman teams. Both atchers had "lots of staff on the ball," so much, in fact, that Gillett walked three and but two wild nitches charged in to him, while Joe Lucas was equally energing with passes and heaved three wild pitches. The unsteadiness was costly to both sides.

Pulls Out of Hole. "Red" Brennan, the speedy southpaw twirled the Puritys to a decisive victory over the Feldmans in the first afternoon game, the final score being 8 to 0. Eilly Meason, the snappy little third buseman, was responsible for the scoring of five of the eight rons driving in four with timely hits, and scoring once himself, when he siammed a long hit into deep center that was good for the circuit run. Jim Wilson, the farmer 16th infantry star, pitched a good game for the Feldmans but costly errors behind him and opportune hitting by the bakers proved too strong a commanding lead in the first session and increased it as the game progressed.

Scoring Starts Early. Scoring Starts Early.

Two cleanly placed hits in the first inting promoted two runs for the bakers, while two more were added in the third, one in the sixth and three in the seventh. Brennan held the Feldmans safe during the entire game, and aithough in tight places several times, pulled himself out of holes by some fast pitching. "Red" also got a couple of hits which contributed to the run making, one of these coming in the seventh with men on bases. Jim Dyer, over at the first corner, Richle Filliman at short and "Red" Longmyre behind the bat played consistent ball throughout the affair, the hitting of Meanon, of course, being the feature. Gillett got away bad and an error by Grady and twe singles filled the bases with some out. Campbell fanned and clyde Woollen made a feint as if to steal home. It was costly and not at all spectacular, for Gillett threw to Foleyn and caught him off the bag. Then Gallacher fiew out to Brann.

The clerks got at Liceas right off the pump, and Lyman clouded a double. But Seymour, the new shortstop, popped a foul to Foleyn and Grady and Cunning-ham fanned.

Gillett 'found himself' in the second and, after Lampkin singled, he didn't allow the semblance of a hit until the aventh. 'Buster' took his own sweet time and pitched good ball. Hotten work by the Krackajack infield and a bad few minutes by Lunss ave the clerks the first runs. Burnen waited for a walk to open the last of the fourth. Lampert singled and Brann hunted one at Poleyn, who first lessinated about going for the bull and then, when he did get it, found second and third bases uncovered. This left the marked Lawrence, forcing in a run.
Then a wild pitch let in shother. This seemed to give Lucas his stride and he funned the next three batters.
With one down in the fifth, Cunminsham doubled to center. Burson took 'three and two' and when Lucas grooved it he poled out a home run, the

The Krackajacks got their lone run in the seventh. After two were down, Latter seems the first two were down, Latter seems the first leaves to third. A wild pitch let the run score. Fatterson fanned and the game was over.

Andy Fatterson gave an exhibition of timper in the third inning. Stepping note one of Gillett's fast balls he suddenly changed his mind and turned his hack, being hit on the shoulder. He slared at the pitcher and gripped his hat me if to throw it at Gillett. Again he changed his mind and slammed the half at the press box. Patterson will have to act the part of a man if he insends to remain in the league. It's dangerous when hot-headed youngsters get to throwing hats around.

itial moment, as they were never in danger of being defeated, in spite of the determined attitude of the soldier club.

Juan occupied a seat over by the press box, and in order to make his romarks more impressive and for the benefit of the scribes, indulged in several English phrases that must have encouraged the brown ears they were intended for, judging from the playing. At least, they seemed to be in the game right from the start, and, take it from me, those Mexican boys spared no palm in making the victory a cleancut one. In spite of the fact that the contest was seved up in practically the first was seved up in practically the first session, they played hard all the way, firm in their desire to increuse their batting averages and make as stood a showing as possible. This they did, and although it was at the expense of the soldier boys, whom all loyal Americans admire, there was no recreet in view of the cleanout playing.

About this young man Villareal, he is probably the find of the season, and will doubtless receive the consideration will doubtless receive the consideration.

Amid a voiley of cleanly placed base hits and some fast base renning, those copper colored boys from the south side known as the Waiz club, jumped another notch in their trend toward pennantville, by decisivery trimming the aggressive Seventh infantry nine in the second afternoon game, 17 to 4. Inclidentally, Villareal, the dark stoopshouldered young man with the arm of steel was on the mound for the Walz bunch, and this inspiring fact together with the consistent coaching of a rotund, irrepressible man, known as Juan Gomes, seemed to make victory certain for the Walz boys from the in-

Capt. A. H. Hardy, claimant of the world's all round shooting championship, will be in El Paso on May 20 and 31 as the guest of the Pass City Gnn club and will gNe exhibitions of fancy shooting on the cind's grounds both days. Capt. Hardy halfs from Denver and is making a trip around the country in the interest of an ammanition firm. The exhibitions will be free to all who care to attend.

Capt. Hardy promises to hit two small mirbles thrown in the air by himself, and to eject a 22 shelf from his rifle and hreak it before it him the ground. There are several other fancy stunts on the expert's program. The first shoot for the Hercules trophy took place or the Pass City traps on Sunday morning and some excellent scores were made. This is a handleap event and that the handleappers did good work is evident from a perusal of the scores. The high man was R. A. Lester. He had a handleap of five, but needed only one to give him a perfect score on 25 targets, as he dropped 24.

Some good scoring was also done in the regular matches. The trophy scores given below show the actual breaks and the handleap combined for 25 targets.

seventh when he eased up and allowed four runs to cross the plate, the little Mexican had the soldier boys eating out of his hand, as none were able to get further than socond hase despite the numerous attempts made.

In the third the Mexicans added four more, while two were taken on in the fourth, two more in the fifth and five in the sixth. In the seventh, two more were added for good measure bringing tha total up to 17 for the Walz crowd who found it impossible to keep from connecting cleanly. In the soldiers half of the seventh, Villareal struck two men, while another got to first on his error. Barrett then came along with a two base hit and the whole banch raced home. Myres and Ker were easy outs, but Barrett scored a moment later when Minajares muffed fleatron's grounder. The box score:

Back to Nature

A law for leaf as well as man

Tobacco leaf, as we receive it-even the carefully chosen leaf which makes that Presado Blend-is apt to be overdry and have a slight trace of bitterness

Presado Blend accomplishment is the removing of the last trace of bitterness and the "curing out" of the excess dryness, the Presado way.

And so we have a standard for our Presado Blend. The leaf must be aged and cured to bring back all the mellowness and sweetness-but with never a trace of the green-leaf bitterness.

How long do you think it takes?

Longer than you'd expect.

Depending on the type and condition of the leaf, it takes from 1 to 3 years.

Then-and only then-will we begin to make the tobacco into Tom Keene Cigars.

And Presado Blend comes only in Tom Keene. Do you think it worth while to accept a doubtful substitute for Tom Keene?
